*'I am no longer accepting the things I cannot change.
I am changing the things I cannot accept.'* – Angela Davis
"No one can do everything, but everyone has to do something."
– Timothy Snyder, author of On Tyranny

Got a little time?

- Sign up for Indivisible Easthampton newsletter (<https://indivisibleeasthampton.org/>). Forward it to friends.
- Follow Indivisible Easthampton on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/people/Indivisible-Easthampton-Public-Page/61587426091022/>) and Bluesky (<https://bsky.app/profile/indivisible01027.bsky.social>) and share posts.
- Boycott Amazon, Citizens Bank, Target to tell them to stop financing and working with ICE (<https://www.boycottcitizens.org/ice>).

A little more?

- Subscribe to Chop Wood, Carry Water for a brief daily political summary and actions to take. (<https://chopwoodcarrywaterdailyactions.substack.com>)
- Learn about your elected officials and save their information in your address book, so you can contact them with a concern at any time (<https://www.270towin.com/elected-officials/>).
- Use 5 Calls (<https://5calls.org/>) Contact elected officials about critical issues.

Even more?

- Attend one event on the Indivisible Northampton Regional Calendar (<https://in-slmw.org/wp-content/uploads/Calendar/cal.html>) every week. Carpool with Easthampton neighbors.
- Volunteer with LUCE, the Immigrant Justice Network of Massachusetts (<https://www.lucemass.org/>) to support immigrants.
- Volunteer with the Easthampton Community Center to support our neighbors (<https://easthamptoncommunitycenter.org/get-involved/>).
- Join an Indivisible Easthampton team (https://indivisibleeasthampton.org/?page_id=11): send postcards to voters, organize protests, advocate for immigrant neighbors and more!
- Read the Indivisible Guide (<https://indivisible.org/resource/guide/>) and check out the Indivisible website (<https://indivisible.org/>).

A little or a lot of money?

- Donate to organizations making change.
